OUR

Campaign Sheet.

EDITION EXHAUSTED.

UNPARALLELED DEMAND

FOR

THE PEOPLE.

Notwithstanding the edition of our Campaign Sheet No. 1 was thought to be large, the demand for it has been four-fold what we expected; so that the entire Edition was exhausted nearly as soon as the Press had ceased printing.

We shall, however, put Campaign Sheet No. 2 to press as soon as possible, and without fail issue it SATURDAY, September 26.

It will contain a great variety of matter, including a full Report of the Demonstration in Pittsburgh on the evening of the 23d, and the Great Mass Meeting on the 24th. It will contain a Speech by Senator Morton, of Ind.; by Senator Drake, of Missouri; and Speeches by other eminent Statesmen, including, it is expected, the Hon. E. M. STANTON. Also, Songs, and much other matter adapted to the Campaign.

Orders for No. 1, received after the edition was exhausted, unless otherwise directed, will be filled by No. 2.

We have to ask that Committees and others send in their orders as early as possible, so that we may form some idea what edition to print.

Price $2 a hundred copies.

Cincinnati, September 18, 1868.

A large and enthusiastic Republican meeting was held at this place last evening, which was presided over by Hon. Thomas Ewing, Jr., of Cincinnati, Speeches were made by Gen. Ewing, Governor Cox, Governor Morton, of Indiana, candidate for Governor from Washington county, candidate for Congress from Washington county, candidate for Sheriff, and a number of other gentlemen. The meeting was the largest political meeting ever held in Washington county, being full to overflowing. The Democratic Commonwealth's Faithful Sons Hold Their Grand Opening Flight and Jam, Cake.

The great rebel Democratic mass meeting that was announced in Wheeling, the party to which Governor Boreman belongs, came off to-day, and before a vast throng of rebels and traitors, Governor Boreman was introduced to the audience as the Governor of West Virginia, and was brought into a carriage and driven around the streets. Governor Boreman, in addressing the meeting, said he was glad to see so many of his old friends present, and he was glad to see so many rebels present. He said he was glad to see so many rebels present, because he was a rebel himself, and he was glad to see so many rebels present, because he was a rebel himself, and he was glad to see so many rebels present, because he was a rebel himself, and
